

Social Studies Chapter 7 Study Guide

Name _____

Test on _____

Between 1880 and 1910 the demand for steel jumped because steel was needed for cars, bridges, and buildings.

Corn is a major crop of the Central Plains.

Large deposits of iron are found in Minnesota

Most iron in the Middle West is mined by bulldozing open pits.

Poland and the Interior Plains of the United States are alike because they have mostly flat farmland.

The Central Plains is low with gentle hills.

The climate is milder near the Great Lakes because the land is near water.

The Great Plains is mostly dry grassland.

The Middle West is cold in the winter because there are no mountains to block the movement of cold air.

Wheat is a major crop of the Great Plains.